Heard on the Historical Trail

Most chapters are on summer break yet they seem to remain busy! Congratulations to Platte County Historical Society and Campbell County Historical Society for the success of their recent fundraisers in the form of playing cards, each one containing a different historical photograph of the respective areas.

WSHS/Sheridan County Chapter member (and former legislator) John Patton shared his program "The Unruly Americans: Then and Now" at a recent meeting of the chapter.

Through September 4, the National Historic Trails Center in Casper will feature works by young artists from Wyoming Indian High School.

Check it out—www.wyohistory.org. Congratulations to the WSHS and Tom Rea, project director, for receiving a Cultural Trust Fund grant for this project.

Historic Evanston Site of 2011 Annual Meeting

The community of Evanston and historic Uinta County will be the site of this year's annual meeting. A full weekend of adventure, education and entertainment awaits you. Registration begins Thursday, September 8th. Committee meetings (Finance, Foundation, Executive, and others) will begin that afternoon, followed by a "hobo" dinner at the historic Roundhouse Complex. Friday will bring a variety of tours and presentations, each designed to showcase the area that is rich in history. Busses will take us to the Fort Bridger State Historic Site where we will enjoy a look at the totally renovated Black & Orange Cabins, and walking tours. Then it's off to the historic Guild Ranch. Later that evening we will enjoy a talk by well-known archaeologist Dr. Dudley Gardner and Martin Lammers, President of the Fort Bridger Historical Association.

Saturday morning will begin with the annual general membership meeting. It is important that your chapter's voice be heard, so please plan on attending. The highly anticipated awards luncheon will begin at noon, and includes revealing all the winners who have been nominated for a wide variety of awards. The traditional banquet that evening will feature delightful company, entertainment and more!

Please come and join in the fun, learn more about the history of the area and, most importantly, represent your chapter's voice as the Executive Committee addresses a variety of issues, including changes to the Bylaws and Constitution which were published in last month's issue. Everyone, members and non-members are invited.

This year's event is hosted by the Uinta County Museum and City of Evanston, in cooperation with the Fort Bridger Historical Association. The schedule can be found on page five and the Registration Form is enclosed. The registration deadline is August 22nd.

From the President. . .

Dear Friends --- The 58th annual meeting of the WSHS is fast approaching. This is the year-end cycle for the Society and an important opportunity for members to attend and represent their chapters. Everyone is welcome to attend and I'm looking forward to seeing many of you there. I respectfully request that all chapters please consider sending at least one representative so your chapter can have a say in what you expect from the Wyoming State Historical Society.

It is important for chapter secretaries to submit their annual reports to Linda by August 22nd. Your report is crucial for recording the various activities and programs sponsored by the chapters. It also gives other chapters ideas about how they might improve their functions. I know you've all been very busy the past year and we're excited to hear what you've been doing.

Ballots have been coming in fast and furious from members across the United States. Thank you for voting – it is sincerely appreciated. If you have not yet sent in your ballot please do so by the 15th of August. I want to thank Charlene Busk and Tamsen Hert for running, and encourage all of you to think about being on the Executive Committee. Next year there will be three seats available. If you're interested just let us know, please.

Thank you to all of the chapters or individual members who nominated someone for an award. The awards luncheon is a highlight of the annual meeting and it is going to be very exciting. The chair of the Awards Committee, Judy Musgrave (Sheridan), tells us she received more nominations this year than any other. Thank you to Judy and her committee, Lynn Houze (Cody), Cindy Brown (Cheyenne), and Linda Fleming (Baggs) for their efforts. Soliciting nominations, reviewing nominations and connecting with the nominees is a huge effort and one they do with ease (or so they make it appear).

We owe a special debt of gratitude to Kay Rossiter (Uinta County Museum) and Jim Davis (City of Evanston) for helping us out of a tough situation regarding the annual meeting. They, along with Marian McLean, Selina Zuehlsdorff and Tisa Cheney, have been a huge part of putting together events for the weekend that will appeal to everyone. Bring a guest!

Lastly, thank you to all our members from Wyoming, virtually every state in the union, and several overseas. Without you the Society would not be able to guarantee that Wyoming's past remains accessible to present and future generations!

Rick

Congratulations to WSHS/Sweetwater County member (and board member) Russ Tanner for being invited to speak and cut the ribbon at the dedication of the new interpretive sign at the Granger Community Cemetery.

The Wyoming Department of State Parks & Cultural Resources will host a cultural heritage tourism conference in Cody on October 6-9. For details call WSHS member Sara Needles at 777-7498.

WSHS member and director of the Alliance for Historic Wyoming, Hilery Lindmier, reports a successful tour of the historic Gothberg Ranch in Natrona County. The ranch was homesteaded in 1885 and functioned as a sheep ranch until the late 1950s. The current owner has undertaken huge steps to preserve and restore this piece of ranching history.

The Platte County Historical Society, in partnership with the Wheatland Kiwanis Club, successfully hosted their 4th annual historic ranch tour. This year's hosts were the Collins and Twiford ranches near Glendo, both over 100 years old and still operated by the same families. Proceeds benefit chapter projects and scholarships.

Hats off to WSHS/Greater Yellowstone Historical Society member Dr. Sharon Kahin, Christ Episcopal Church, and the folklore department at Utah State University for hosting a Crow pipe ceremony at Heart Mountain in Powell.

Congratulations to the Hanna Basin Historical Society and the Carbon County Cemetery Association for getting the Carbon Cemetery named to the National Register of Historic Places.

The personalities, differences and similarities of Wyoming lawmen Tom Horn and Ed Cantrell will be explored at a Lawman's Symposium in Buffalo on September 23-24, 2011. WSHS member, author and historian Chip Carlson will relate key events in the Tom Horn episode of the late 1890s-early 1900s, with emphasis on Horn's controversial trial and conviction for the 1901 murder of Willie Nickell. Horn was hanged in Cheyenne after his conviction for the murder of 14-year old Willie Nickell. Historians continue to debate whether Horn actually murdered the boy. Ron Roberson, a former Wyoming State Highway Patrolman and range detective, worked closely with Ed Cantrell in the 1960s and 1970s. In 1978, Cantrell, then Chief of Public Safety in Rock Springs, shot one of his deputies between the eyes while they were sitting in an unmarked police car in the parking lot of the Silver Dollar Restaurant and Saloon. Roberson, who was the first state-deputized range detective in Wyoming, will recount his association with Cantrell. Jackson trial lawyer Gerry Spence defended Ed Cantrell and gained an acquittal in the 1979 trial held in Pinedale. For details about the symposium call 684-7793 or 684-7064.

September is traditionally Archaeology Awareness Month in Wyoming. Created in 1990, the event better acquaints the public with the discipline of archaeology.

Each year the staff of the Wyoming State Historic Preservation Office creates an impressive award winning poster, tee-shirts, and activities that promote cultural resources around the state. This year's poster features an image of a beautiful hide painting by Eastern Shoshone artist Codsigo, also known as Cadzi Cody. Born about 1866, his artwork was transitional because he adapted traditional materials and art forms familiar from prehistoric petroglyphs, pictographs and decorated leather goods. The Codsigo painting features dancers, hunters, buffalo and horse figures and pre-dates 1900. For a complete schedule of events, or to order posters and tee-shirts, go to www.wyoshpo.state.wy.us and click "Archaeology Awareness Month," or contact Judy Wolf at 766-5366 or Ashley Rooney at 777-7566.

2012 CALENDAR OF WYOMING HISTORY AVAILABLE NOW!

Calendar editor, Rick Ewig and his bevy of helpers have put together a bang-up calendar for 2012. The color, the little nuances not seen before, and the wonderful photographs from the collections of the American Heritage Center say it all. The images of children, basketball teams and businesses help speak to us about the way Wyoming was and, in some instances, still is. And, as always, the daily tidbits pulled from the pages of newspapers across the state make for some enjoyable reading. We would be remiss in not recognizing the outstanding work that Pioneer Printing in Cheyenne does for the Society. They have produced the calendar for us since the very first one came off the presses in the early 1980s, and it is obvious they take pride in their work. Order forms were sent to previous vendors and chapters in May.

If you have not yet placed an order, or if you're a new vendor and wish to place an order please do so soon. Quantities are limited, so make sure you don't miss out. Chapters—you too. The calendar is a sure-fire fundraiser and has been known to help increase memberships. They make wonderful gifts for friends and family, or business associates. Order now!

The May image on the 2012 calendar features a young baker advertising Earl's Bread, produced by the Brandenberg Bakery in Lovell, ca 1930s.
